EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. Applicants canceled claims 1-3, 11, 12 and 16-22.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Travis D. Boone (attorney for applicants) on August 30, 2006.
4. The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel Claim 23.

Cancel Claim 24.

5. It is to be noted that the Examiner informed applicants that Koberstein et al (US 2006/0165912 A1) teaches present inventions of claims 23 and 24 (see Fig.3B and last thirteen lines of paragraph [0056]) and suggested them to narrow the "photosensitive group" of claims 23 and 24 to an acryl group or an ethylene group according to pg.6 of present specification (since Koberstein teaches a diazo group (a photosensitive group)). However, applicants rather wanted to cancel those claims 23 and 24.
6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As previously indicated, Lu et al ("Micropatterns Constructed from Au Nanoparticles", Chemical Communications, (9), pg.1056-1057 (2003)) does not teach or suggest present photoinitiator of claim 4. Although Koberstein et al (US 2006/0165912 A1) teaches (see Fig.3B and the end of paragraph [0056]) metal (Au) nanoparticle prepared by forming a self-assembled monolayer of a thiol with a terminal reactive group (represented by present Formula 1) on the surface of the metal nanoparticle, and then introducing a photosensitive group (diazo group) through a reaction with the terminal reactive group to the monolayer, Koberstein does not teach or suggest present photoinitiator of claim 4.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
